1a. The des - ert longs for rain and the plants raise their hands to the sky.—
1b. But ev' - ry ri - ver bed that was emp - ty can be filled— a - gain.—
2. The sha - dow of death spreads through - out the whole— val - ley be - low.—
3. Ev' - ry thirs - ty heart; ev' - ry spi - rit that is with - ered and dry—

— The deer looks for a stream in a place that has long— been dry.—
— The Lord who brought the drought can let the floods pour— down— a - gain.—
— Just let the Lord of life grow an o - a - sis— in— your soul.—
— can on - ly be re - vived when it drinks from the ri - ver of life.—

— May - be— the rain— will bring you to life— a - gain.—

— May - be— the rain— will bring you to life— a - gain.—

(opt. intro/interlude)
