with a sketch was made to get the morning mail, and would see the city before it was dark. I had a good night's sleep, and was ready to go to bed at 11:30 p.m.

From here we returned to Berlin, about twelve miles from Leipzig. There were many people in the streets, and the shops were all open. I had a

I left after lunch with the family, June 17, 1914, for a week's visit to my parents. I remember the day of the departure very well. There were many people at the station. Many of them are gone since the last time. With only a few exceptions, I have not seen them since. I remember the day of the departure very well. There were many people at the station.
