Miller, Edward (Editor)

Publisher: Grand Rapids, MI: Christian Classics Ethereal Library

Description: Frederick Scrivener was a British biblical scholar of the 19th century who dedicated his research to the New Testament. In Plain Introduction to the Criticism of the New Testament, Scrivener studies over 3,000 manuscripts of the New Testament. Many of the accounts in this volume have been written or compiled by leading scholars in the fields of Greek and Latin classics or biblical studies. This second volume explores nearly a dozen different versions of the New Testament, including the Ancient versions, Syriac versions, Latin versions, Egyptian versions, and many more. In addition, Scrivener provides readers with a guide to help them analyze the multiple manuscripts contained in this book that is unrivaled. As a result of completing a project of this latitude, Scrivener will be remembered for decades.
